

Communities of Practice

The UNEP Live Communities of Practice (CoP) portal brings together people who are active practitioners in a topic or domain of human endeavor. The purpose of a CoP is for practitioners to actively participate, share knowledge, best practices, ask/answer questions of their colleagues and peers.

CoP connects people from different countries, affiliations and disciplines – who might otherwise not have an opportunity to interact – on common issues of concern. This helps to build dialogue and insights, stimulate learning and collaboration and deliver tangible results, knowledge and products.

How to register

1

Begin by clicking on the following link or pasting it in your browser (use Mozilla Firefox or Google Chrome if possible) - www.uneplive.org/community

2

To gain access to the UNEP Live CoP portal, you must first register. To do so, click on the green tab called REGISTER which is located on the top right hand side of the page

3

Complete the registration form by filling in all the fields, including typing the answer to the simple question at the end. Click on register

4

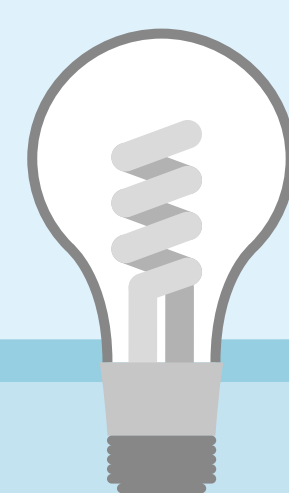

You will receive an email confirmation which includes a verification link and instructions. Click on the link to verify your email

5

Click on the featured Community of Practice you would like to join

6

When it opens, click the green 'JOIN COMMUNITY' tab on the right side of page. If you miss this step, you will not be able to access the CoP features

Remember that every time you want to go to the CoP, you should sign-in by entering your username and password at the top right corner of the page and click LOG IN
